

Garfield Park Reservation

Garfield Park Reservation:

Garfield Park Reservation is located in Garfield Heights. The history of Garfield Park dates back more than a century. In 1894, the city of Cleveland purchased three farms a half mile south of the city limits as a site for a new south side park. It was officially opened in 1895 as Newburg Park and later the name changed to Garfield Park. Much of the beautiful stonework from the early 1900s is still evident in the reservation today. Garfield Park was leased to Cleveland Metroparks in 1986.
